

THE END OF TIMES?

Ricardo Beas -- December 2012

When I was in my teens living in Tijuana, Mexico, I was inspired by a physics professor who recommended two books to me, Chariots of The Gods by Erich von Daniken, about alien visitors from outer space, and The Great Initiates by Eduard Schure, a study of the secret history of religions. These two books forever changed my life.

As a result, I started reading many other books on spirituality, religions, metaphysics, parapsychology, extraterrestrials and other similar topics. In one of those instances I read a book by Rodolfo Benavides, Dramatic Prophecies of the Great Pyramid. According to the author, within the tunnels and walls of the Cheops pyramid (The Great Pyramid of Giza) the history of mankind is written in hieroglyphs, both past and future.

Benavides also claims that they discovered a way to measure time within these writings, which he said showed many important events in history captured therein, all leading to a cataclysmic event on the earth. According to that historical clock, that event was to occur around 1984 (according to my recollection). Now in 2012 of course we hear of many other prophecies from old civilizations, like the Mayan and Sumarian, that point to our present time as being when some sort of extreme change will come upon our planet and race.

In one of my prior blogs I told you that I met world famous clairvoyant Maria Moreno. The first time I met her was in her home in Hollywood around 1974. She told me many things about my life impossible for her to know and in our conversation I asked her if the prophecies of the Pyramid regarding the 1984 prediction would come to be. Maria said that the events would indeed happen, but that it would be some years later than predicted, but did not give me a specific date. In my mind I understood her to mean some decades away, as opposed to centuries.

Although there seems to be an agreement among those believing in a future catastrophe that this could happen in 2012, there are different opinions as to what the event will be, from cosmic calamities to man-made wars, in particular using atomic and biological weapons.

There are also those that believe that the coming event will be more of a spiritual awakening, that man will somehow evolve and become a loving race. Well, I guess that unless someone like Jesus (as some proclaim) or extraterrestrials arrive and show us in a miraculous way how to be better human beings, man is not going to change; more specifically, those that rule the world and bring agony and death to it, won't. From that perspective, it is more likely that war will come or a catastrophe will fall upon us before man changes for the good of all mankind.

I am a believer that the future can be seen (as I have seen it) and that some very special persons have an even greater gift that enables them to see it more clearly. There are many individuals, like Nostradamus, which are able to describe so vividly some future events that it is almost irrefutable. Here is one prophecy that Jesus said when asked about the End Of Times. From Mathew 24:

*"Jesus left the temple and was walking away when his disciples came up to him to call his attention to its buildings. ² "Do you see all these things?" he asked. "Truly I tell you, not one stone here (in Judea) will be left on another; every one will be thrown down."

³ *As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

⁴ *Jesus answered: "Watch out that no one deceives you. ⁵ For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am the Messiah,' and will deceive many. ⁶ You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. ⁷ Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. ⁸ All these are the beginning of birth pains."

In the book of the Apocalypse, which also describes the end of times, it gives a very interesting description of what appears to be a war plane as we know them today that has always stuck in my mind. From Revelation 9:9:

"And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle."

There are also mentions of flying scorpions, their tail looking much like the back of a plain (the rudder). Remember, people in those days could only describe things based on what they knew, they did not know what a plane is or what a jet engine sounds like.

The news we listen to every day are not encouraging. I asked Professor Noam Chomsky in an email a couple of months ago where he thought we would be in ten years and he replied,

"We're heading towards self-destruction, either by environmental catastrophe or nuclear war. Can be averted, but signs are not good."

This thing we have come to know as the 2012 Doomsday Prophecy is very frightening to even consider and we all wish it to be false. But if true, as Maria said, it might take longer than predicted, but could be close at hand.

What can we do? If we don't pull hard on the reigns of government and the ease in which it is engaging the whole world in war after war, we will have no one to blame but ourselves if we do end up in a worldwide nuclear/biological war. And if an astrological catastrophe is headed our way, then we will need a good foundation in principles of human kindness to survive.

Either way, we have to do our part now. We just can't wait for it to happen.

May God Have Mercy On Our Soul?
