

ILLEGAL AND INHUMAN MANDATORY FORCED VACCINATION

ACTIONS BY CALIFORNIA GOVERNOR, CONGRESS, COUNTY HEALTH AND EDUCATIONAL AUTHORITIES LISTING OF VIOLATIONS OF FEDERAL AND STATE PRIVACY, CONSTITUTIONAL & INTERNATIONAL LAW CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY

Revision December 17, 2018

THE US CONSTITUTION'S FIRST AMENDMENT STATES:

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

The US Constitution Fourth Amendment states:

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

The US Constitution Fourteenth Amendment states:

"No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

Title 18 United States Code, Chapter 13, Civil Rights, Section 241, Conspiracy Against Rights:

"If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same ... they shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section ... they shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death."

Section 242, Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law, also applies, in particular for government employees.

18 U.S.C. 245 -- Federally protected activities

(a) (1) Nothing in this section shall be construed as indicating an intent on the part of Congress to prevent any State, any possession or Commonwealth of the United States, or the District of Columbia, from exercising jurisdiction over any offense over which it would have jurisdiction in the absence of this section, nor shall anything in this section be construed as depriving State and local law enforcement authorities of responsibility for prosecuting acts that may be violations of this section and that are violations of State and local law. No prosecution of any offense described in this section shall be undertaken by the United States except upon the certification in writing of the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, the Associate Attorney General, or any Assistant Attorney General specially designated by the Attorney General that in his judgment a prosecution by the United States is in the public interest and necessary to secure substantial justice, which function of certification may not be delegated.

(2) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit the authority of Federal officers, or a Federal grand jury, to investigate possible violations of this section.

(b) Whoever, whether or not acting under color of law, by force or threat of force willfully injures, intimidates or interferes with, or attempts to injure, intimidate or interfere with—

(1) any person because he is or has been, or in order to intimidate such person or any other person or any class of persons from—

(B) participating in or enjoying any benefit, service, privilege, program, facility, or activity provided or administered by the United States;

(2) any person because of his race, color, religion or national origin and because he is or has been—

(A) enrolling in or attending any public school or public college;

(C) applying for or enjoying employment, or any perquisite thereof, by any private employer or any agency of any State or subdivision thereof, or joining or using the services or advantages of any labor organization, hiring hall, or employment agency;

18 U.S. Code § 247 - Damage to religious property; obstruction of persons in the free exercise of religious beliefs

(a) Whoever, in any of the circumstances referred to in subsection (b) of this section—

(2) intentionally obstructs, by force or threat of force, any person in the enjoyment of that person's free exercise of religious beliefs, or attempts to do so shall be punished as provided in subsection (d).

The California Constitution, Article 1, section 4 states:

“Free exercise and enjoyment of religion without discrimination or preference are guaranteed.”

The California Constitution, Article 1, section 1 states:

“ALL PEOPLE ARE BY NATURE FREE AND INDEPENDENT AND HAVE INALIENABLE RIGHTS. AMONG THESE ARE ENJOYING AND DEFENDING LIFE AND LIBERTY, ACQUIRING, POSSESSING, AND PROTECTING PROPERTY, AND PURSUIING AND OBTAINING SAFETY, HAPPINESS, AND PRIVACY.”

The California Constitution, Article 9, section 1 states:

“A general diffusion of knowledge and intelligence being essential to the preservation of the rights and liberties of the people, the Legislature shall encourage by all suitable means the promotion of intellectual, scientific, moral, and agricultural improvement.”

The California Constitution, Article 9, section 5 states:

“The Legislature shall provide for a system of common schools by which a free school shall be kept up and supported in each district at least six months in every year, after the first year in which a school has been established.”

California Constitution, Article 1, section 7 states:

“A person may not be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law or denied equal protection of the laws.”

California Constitution, Article 20, section 3 states:

“Members of the Legislature, and all public officers and employees, executive, legislative, and judicial, except such inferior officers and employees as may be by law exempted, shall, before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

“I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter.

CA EDUCATION CODE SECTION 200:

ARTICLE 1. Declaration of Purpose [200 - 201] (Article 1 added by Stats. 1982, Ch. 1117, Sec. 1.)

200. It is the policy of the State of California to AFFORD ALL PERSONS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS, REGARDLESS OF THEIR, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, RELIGION, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in Section 422.55 of the Penal Code, including immigration status, EQUAL RIGHTS, AND OPPORTUNITIES IN THE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS OF THE STATE (RB Note: so we are talking from kinder to university, and if it applies there, it must apply to pre-school). The purpose of this chapter is to prohibit acts that are contrary to that policy and to provide remedies therefor.

CA Education Code Sections 51500, 51501, and 60044 prohibit schools from taking actions against children because of their creed, color, or national origin, and Section 35351 prohibits schools from forcing children to attend a particular school because of race, CREED, or color. Creed is defined as "a set of beliefs that guides the actions of a person or group."

CIVIL RIGHTS IN CALIFORNIA

FROM CALIFORNIA: UNLAWFUL Discrimination -- Your Rights and Remedies Civil Rights Handbook. August 2001 California Attorney General's Office
http://ag.ca.gov/civilrights/pdf/01cr_handbook.pdf

CA Education Code section 72011 states that community colleges must provide their services and classes without regard to race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, handicap, or sex.

CA Welfare and Institutions Code section 16509 permits a child, absent a specific danger to his or her physical or emotional safety, to be raised according to cultural and religious practices and beliefs which differ from general community standards. This section also specifies that raising a child in such a fashion shall not create a need for child welfare services.

California Health and Safety Code 24170-24179.5. Protection of Human Subjects in Medical Experimentation Act (CA equivalent to Nuremberg Code), states in part:

"24171. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that medical experimentation on human subjects is vital for the benefit of mankind, however such experimentation shall be undertaken with due respect to the preciousness of human life and the right of individuals to determine what is done to their own bodies.”

“24175. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no person shall be subjected to any medical experiment unless the informed consent of such person is obtained.”

“24176. a) Any person who is primarily responsible for conduct of a medical experiment and who negligently allows the experiment to be conducted without a subject's informed consent, as provided in this chapter, shall be liable to the subject in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), as determined by the court. The minimum amount of damages awarded shall be five hundred dollars ($500).

(b) Any person who is primarily responsible for the conduct of a medical experiment and who willfully fails to obtain the subject's informed consent, as provided in this chapter, shall be liable to the subject in an amount not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) as determined by the court. The minimum amount of damages awarded shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(c) Any person who is primarily responsible for the conduct of a medical experiment and who willfully fails to obtain the subject's informed consent, as provided in this chapter, and thereby exposes a subject to a known substantial risk of serious injury, either bodily harm or psychological harm, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed one year or a fine of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or both.

(d) Any representative or employee of a pharmaceutical company, who is directly responsible for contracting with another person for the conduct of a medical experiment, and who has knowledge of risks or hazards with respect to the experiment, and who willfully withholds information of the risks and hazards from the person contracting for the conduct of the medical experiment, and thereby exposes a subject to substantial risk of serious injury, either bodily harm or psychological harm, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed one year or a fine of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or both.

(e) Each and every medical experiment performed in violation of any provision of this chapter is a separate and actionable offense. (f) Any attempted or purported waiver of the rights guaranteed, or requirements prescribed by this chapter, whether by a subject or by a subject's conservator or guardian, or other representative, as specified in Section 24175, is void.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or expand the right of an injured subject to recover damages under any other applicable law.

California Code, Health and Safety Code - HSC § 24175

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no person shall be subjected to any medical experiment unless the informed consent of such person is obtained.

CA Health and Safety Code 24174. As used in this chapter, "medical experiment" means:

(a) The severance or penetration or damaging of tissues of a human subject or the use of a drug or device, as defined in Section 109920 or 109925, electromagnetic radiation, heat or cold, or a biological substance or organism, in or upon a human subject in the practice or research of medicine in a manner not reasonably related to maintaining or improving the health of the subject or otherwise directly benefiting the subject.

(b) The investigational use of a drug or device as provided in Sections 111590 and 111595.

(c) Withholding medical treatment from a human subject for any purpose other than maintenance or improvement of the health of the subject.

VIOLATION OF PRIVACY LAWS

Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

VIOLATION INTERNATIONAL LAW

The Nuremberg Code and Universal Declaration on Bioethics and Human Rights UNESCO prohibit forced medication, including vaccination. Article 6, section 1 states:

“Any preventive, diagnostic and therapeutic medical intervention is only to be carried out with the prior, free and informed consent of the person concerned, based on adequate information. The consent should, where appropriate, be express and may be withdrawn by the person concerned at any time and for any reason without disadvantage or prejudice.”

GENOCIDE

Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide. Adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 9 December 1948.

Article II

In the present Convention, genocide means any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group, as such :

- (a) Killing members of the group;
- (b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group;
- (c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part;
- (d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group;

California Penal Code section 11412 makes it a felony for a person to attempt to cause or to cause another, by means of a direct, personal threat of unlawful injury upon any person or property, to refrain from exercising his or her religion, or engaging in a religious service. It must reasonably appear to the recipient of the threat that the threat could be carried out.

California Discrimination Prohibited by the FEHA (Fair Employment and Housing Act)

The FEHA prohibits employment discrimination, harassment and retaliation based upon race, RELIGIOUS CREED, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability (including AIDS and HIV), mental disability, medical condition, marital status, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions), age (40 or older), or sexual orientation (heterosexuality, homosexuality, and bisexuality).
